

The Study Guide is:

- An exciting inductive Bible study going through the Bible.
- Helps you discover what is so amazing about Grace.
- Helps you make sense of what appears to be Biblical contradictions.
- Helps you understand, love and live by Grace.
- For the first time, a study guide that includes a balanced evangelical and non-denominational perspective of the Bible.
- Will make readers able to "have an answer for any man that asketh".
- The Bible will no longer be a mystery book that only a pastor can understand.
- Answer Key included.

How has this Study Guide changed People's Lives?

- "Next to the Bible, I give more of your book away than any other book."
Baptist Pastor
- "For the first time, we can see how the Bible fits together."
Wesleyan Church Group
- "I can now understand the hard to understand things found in the Gospels."
Brethren Church Member
- "I now can understand contradictions in the Bible at last."
Evangelical Free Church Member
- "This would be a great study tool for our seminary pastors."
Seminary Professor
- "We are giving your book to a Hungarian woman who has no knowledge of the Bible."
Campus Crusade Missionary
- "I will teach Puzzle in my Anglican Church."

About the Author

Janet Davis and her husband Dan, attended Grace Bible College, Grand Rapids, MI. Dan's work took them to various locations in New Jersey, Michigan, Indiana, Kentucky and Tennessee and in each of these locations

Janet had actively taught the Word of God in both local and home Bible classes. Janet and Dan were both instrumental in helping plant and form non-denominational Bible Churches. This study is a result of that teaching ministry.

Grace Life Publishing, Inc.
Murfreesboro, TN 37128

