

CHAPTER 26

DAVIDIC KINGDOM ESTABLISHED TO FULFILL PROPHECIES MADE TO ISRAEL

After Satan is imprisoned, what does Jesus Christ do? Revelation 20:4

How long does Jesus Christ reign? Revelation 20:4

Christ fulfills all the promises made to Israel in the Old Testament and the Gospels regarding the Davidic Kingdom on earth.

Who will rule with Christ? Revelation 20:4

What will Israel inherit? Matthew 25:34

What is the extent of the Kingdom? Zechariah 14:9

For a detailed description of the Davidic Kingdom, see: page 37

What does God promise Israel? Ezekiel 39:28-29

a. _____ b. _____ c. _____

What does God build for Israel? Ezekiel 40:5

Where will Christ dwell in the Kingdom? Ezekiel 43:7

What will be the position of the temple? Isaiah 2:2

This is the Millennial Temple which will be built during the thousand-year reign of Jesus Christ on the earth.

Who cannot enter the Temple? Ezekiel 44:9

What again will be observed? Ezekiel 44:15

What will be the duties of the priests? Ezekiel 44:24

a. _____ b. _____

What days will Israel again observe? Ezekiel 44:24

For 1,000 years Christ will rule over the whole earth. Israel will be in their land. There will be peace, safety and prosperity. The Millennial Temple will be built and there Christ will dwell. The priesthood, animal sacrifices, feasts, and Sabbaths will again be established.

At the end of the one thousand years, what happens to Satan? Revelation 20:7

How does God judge Satan and the deceived nations? Revelation 20:8-9

What happens to Satan, the False Prophet, and the Beast? Revelation 20:10

LIFE APPLICATION

The conflict of the ages between God and Satan is over. Christ is the Victor! Satan, the False Prophet, and the Beast are doomed in the lake of fire forever and ever. What difference does it make in your life today knowing that Jesus Christ is the victor who controls the future?